Day 2 - Expansion on offer - Medium Version

Subject line: Stop prompting from scratch

Preview text: Use a graphic prompt system

Email Body

Starting every image from a blank prompt is slow.

The Flashy Promo Graphics Prompt Machine gives you organized prompt assets for real promotional graphics. You can build launch banners, bonus stack graphics, review thumbnails, blog images, email headers, social posts, lead magnet covers, and sales page graphics.

You also get repair prompts for fixing lighting, colors, objects, and style issues.

Day 2 - Expansion on offer - Long Version

Subject line: Your graphics need a real plan

Preview text: Here is the prompt shortcut

Email Body

A random image prompt can create something interesting. But interesting is not always useful.

Promo graphics need a job. They need to support a product, offer, email, sales page, video, or social post.

That is why the Flashy Promo Graphics Prompt Machine is built as a system. You start with master workflow prompts. Then you choose a core graphic engine. Then you apply a style variation. After that, you use repair and upgrade prompts to fine-tune the result.

You can create graphics for launch countdowns, bonus stacks, thumbnails, email headers, Pinterest pins, LinkedIn promos, lead magnet covers, and sales page sections.

The bonuses help you sell it faster, too. You get a sales letter, email swipes, social posts, video scripts, and PLR rights you can pass on to your own buyers.

Day 3 - Soft sell with urgency - Medium Version

Subject line: Need graphics for your next offer?

Preview text: This can save serious time

Email Body

Promotional graphics are needed everywhere.

Sales pages need hero visuals. Emails need headers. Social posts need scroll-stoppers. Videos need thumbnails. Offers need covers and bonus stacks.

The Flashy Promo Graphics Prompt Machine gives you ready prompt assets for these jobs. You also get bonuses that help you promote and resell the system with PLR rights.

Do not wait until your next launch feels rushed.

Day 3 - Soft sell with urgency - Long Version

Subject line: Your next promo will need images

Preview text: Do not wait for launch stress

Email Body

Most marketers wait until the last minute to create graphics.

Then everything feels rushed. The sales page needs a hero graphic. The emails need banners. The social posts need images. The offer needs product visuals. The bonuses need a stronger presentation.

The Flashy Promo Graphics Prompt Machine helps you prepare faster. It gives you master workflow prompts, core graphic engines, style variations, repair prompts, and aspect-ratio conversion prompts.

You also get the PLR marketing bonuses. That includes a sales letter, 6 promotional emails, 25 social posts, 5 video short scripts, and the full PLR license.

This is useful for your own business. It is also useful as a rebrandable product.

Day 4 - Closing soon - Long Version

Subject line: Last stretch for this prompt system

Preview text: Grab the full PLR package now

Email Body

This is a stronger shortcut than saving random prompt ideas in a folder.

The Flashy Promo Graphics Prompt Machine is organized around a real workflow. You can choose the type of graphic, apply a visual style, repair the result, and resize the idea for different platforms.

That matters when you need visuals for a product launch, affiliate promo, blog review, YouTube thumbnail, lead magnet cover, email header, or social post.

You also receive the marketing bonuses. These include a sales letter, 6 promotional emails, 25 social posts, 5 video short scripts, and a PLR license that lets you pass PLR rights to buyers.

This gives you a product you can use, rebrand, and sell.
